Business Rates

The property is in an area administered by Durham County Council. The property is described on the VOA website as 'Public House and Premises' and shows a Rateable Value of £6,500 (with effect from April 2017).

Trade

Langdon Beck Hotel has been successfully operated by the outgoing tenant for over 16 years. During that time they established a multifaceted business with a good local following. This is complemented by good food, bar and bedroom trade, drawn from the many visitors attracted to this lovely landscape, as well as those walking the Pennine Way or visiting High Force Waterfall.

At the end of the previous tenancy, the Raby Estate has significantly invested in the future of Langdon Beck Hotel, refurbishing the 6 letting bedrooms, and updating the bar, dining room and function rooms to allow a new operator to benefit from increased tariffs and occupancy.

Planning

The property is unlisted. There is potential for the development of temporary campervan accommodation or similar within the surrounding grounds. The property has 1.6-acres which is used annually for the well known Langdon Beck Show.

EPC

EPC rating to be assessed on completion of the refurbishment and will be appended to the lease.

Services

Private water supply and drainage, private sewage treatment plant, mains electricity, oil fired heating, Calor gas cooking.
