References

References will be conducted by a referencing agency and the obtaining of such references is not a guarantee of acceptance.

Holding Deposit

Before your application is considered a holding deposit equivalent to 1 weeks' rent will need to be paid to Raby Estates. This is equivalent to one weeks rent and if your application is successful, it can be used as part payment for the first month. Once the holding deposit is paid the referencing will be commenced and you will be required to provide proof of ID to conduct the right to rent check. You will be contacted directly by the referencing agency for other financial information. Once the holding deposit is paid, if you choose to withdraw from the application then the holding deposit will be retained by the Estate. If you provide false or misleading information which leads to a failed reference or if you fail to pass any of the checks which we are required to carry out under the Immigration Act 2014 your holding deposit will be retained by the Estate. If the Estate chooses not to offer you a tenancy for reasons unconnected with the above, then your holding deposit will be returned within 7 days.
